NIHOTOUR: Taking Giant Strides

NIHOTOUR, NUC Forge Stronger bond.

In a strategic effort to advance Nigeria's tourism sector, Aare (Dr.) Abisoye Fagade, Director-General of the National Institute for Hospitality and Tourism (NIHOTOUR), recently paid a courtesy visit to Abdullahi Yusufu Ribadu, Executive Secretary of the National Universities Commission (NUC).

The meeting aimed to familiarize NIHOTOUR with NUC, during which the Director-General discussed drafting regulatory guidelines in partnership with NUC. The conversation also explored the potential of establishing a federal university dedicated to tourism, along with improving the curriculum by incorporating Tourism and Hospitality Management courses.

Management Retreat: Repositioning NIHOTOUR for Excellence

The management of the National Institute for Hospitality and Tourism (NIHOTOUR) has resolved to reposition the institute for excellence. According to reports from a recent management meeting, the team deliberated on the institute's mandate, identity, and mindset with a view to enhancing its services. It was gathered that the meeting provided a platform for strategic discussions, brainstorming, and collaboration. The outcome of the retreat is expected to inform the institute's strategic plans, aimed at delivering world-class training, research, and consultancy services..
